STUDENTS PRAYER MEET 2026

The Jesus Calls Students Prayer Meet 2026 was held on Sunday, 1 February 2026, at St. George’s School Ground, Chennai, drawing four thousand students from various institutions. The gathering aimed to prepare students to approach their examinations not merely with confidence, but with “Godfidence.”

The meeting began with a vibrant time of worship led by Stella Ramola and Daniel Davidson, creating an atmosphere of unity, faith, and spiritual readiness.

Karunya University students presented a thought-provoking skit encouraging wise and purposeful use of time.

During the interactive testimony session, Bro. Samuel Dhinakaran invited students to share their experiences and reinforced that true success comes through Christ. A very inspiring testimony was shared by a 11th standard student, Evangeline who was burdened by fear over her 10th public exams. She attended the Partners Meeting at Adyar on January 15, 2025. As Dr. Paul Dhinakaran prayed for her, God replaced her anxiety with peace. She scored 497/500 and stood as School First, District First, State 3rd Rank with centums and a Government Merit Scholarship.

Dr. Paul Dhinakaran delivered a powerful message, urging students to “Stand still and God will fight for you,” assuring them of God’s presence in their academic journey. He encouraged them to trust fully in God’s wisdom and power, promising divine guidance as they prepare for and face their examinations.

The souvenir for 2026 was released marking 63 years of Jesus Calls Ministry, reflecting decades of faithful service and impact.

Sis. Evangeline Paul Dhinakaran offered a heartfelt prayer for the students, asking that they be filled with God’s power, receive healing, and experience blessings in their families.

The meeting concluded with personal prayers for each student by Dr. Paul Dhinakaran and his family. Students left encouraged, spiritually strengthened, and assured as they prepared to face their examinations victoriously through Christ.

Bethesda BLESSING MEETING

The Bethesda Blessing Meeting witnessed God’s powerful presence as more than 5000 people from across India gathered with expectation. The atmosphere was filled with worship, prayer, and renewing of faith.

Samuel Dhinakaran ministered from Psalm 18:2, proclaiming the Lord as our rock and mighty fortress who surrounds His people with love and grants salvation. He also interacted with the congregation, hearing testimonies of God’s faithfulness experienced through earlier meetings.

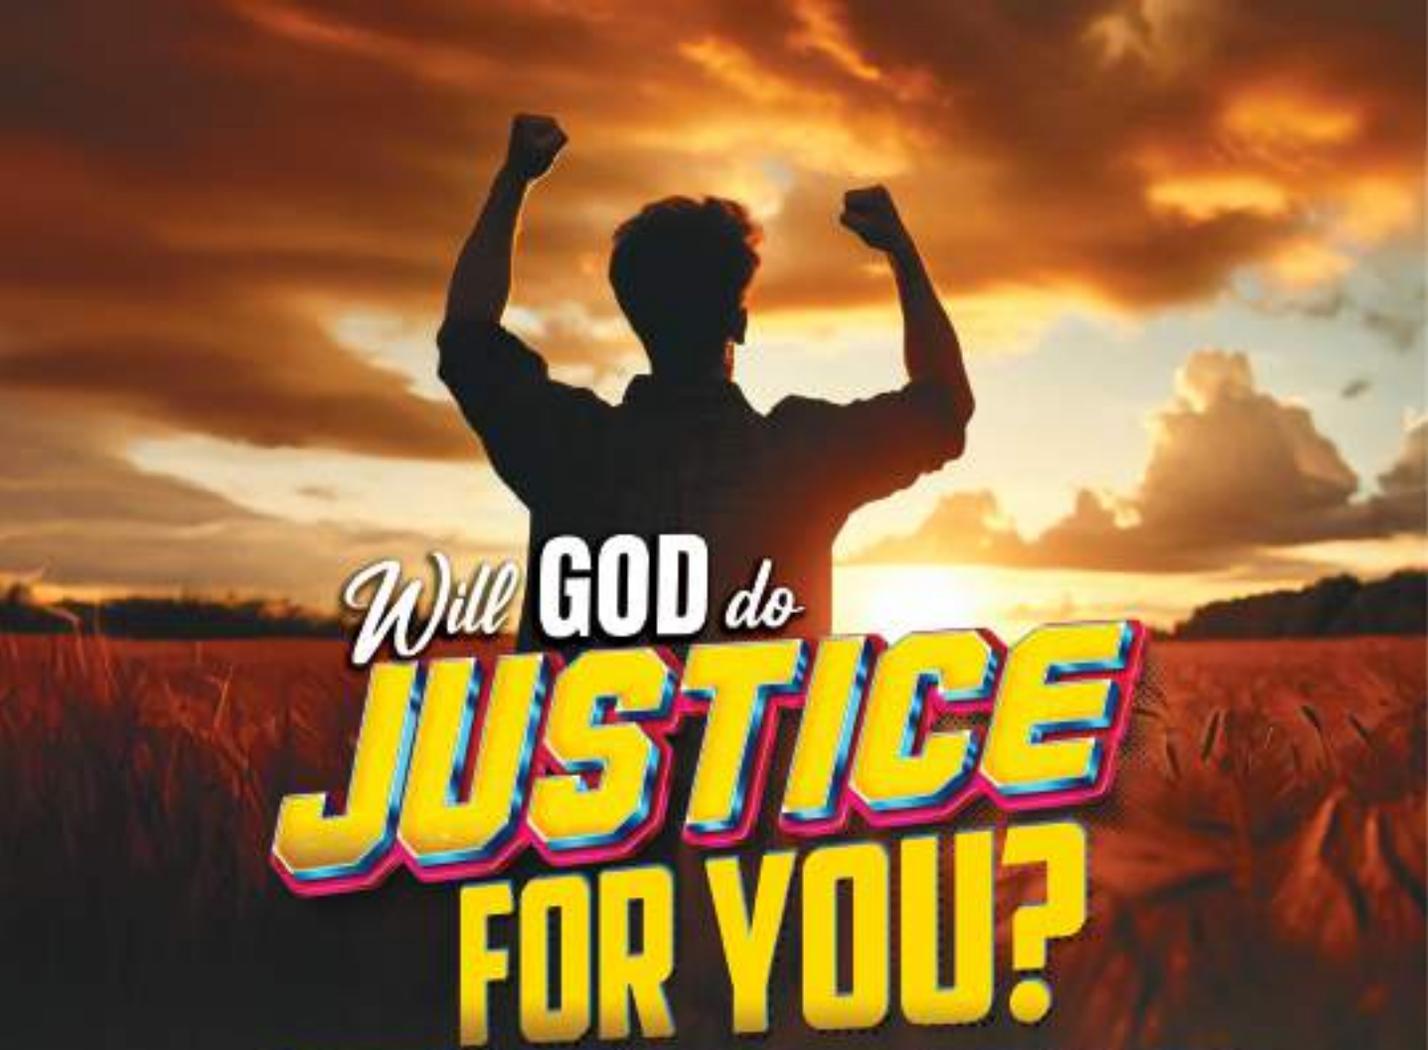

The meeting concluded powerfully as Dr. Paul Dhinakaran ministered from Micah 2:13, declaring that the Lord goes before His people, breaking bondages, shattering chains, healing the sick, removing barriers, and restoring lives through the victory of the cross. As he prayed, many experienced healing, deliverance, and restoration, confirmed through testimonies.

One such testimony was from Kamala from Somanur who was suffering from a heart problem and a paralytic attack that affected her left hand. She came to the prayer meeting in great pain. As prayer was offered, God touched her mightily and healed her completely, removing her pain and restoring her health.

God's mighty name was exalted through the testimonies that rose up. Sis. Evangeline Paul Dhinakaran then offered an anointed prayer for a fresh outpouring of the Holy Spirit. With compassion, personal prayers were offered, and God’s name was glorified.

Earlier that morning, in the Sunday Service, Samuel Dhinakaran, delivered a message to around 1000 people from John 4:24, emphasizing God’s call to become true worshippers who worship in spirit and truth. Highlighting the fear of the Lord and the guidance of the Holy Spirit, he exhorted believers to pursue righteous living rooted in God’s Word. The service concluded with hearts filled with confidence, joy, and peace.

Will GOD do
JUSTICE
FOR YOU?

DEAR FRIEND, GOD'S PROMISE FOR THIS MONTH
COMES FROM ISAIAH 30:18,
"FOR THE LORD IS A GOD OF JUSTICE; BLESSED ARE ALL WHO WAIT FOR HIM."
MAY THIS ASSURANCE STRENGTHEN YOUR HEART TODAY.

Our God is a God of justice. He is a righteous Judge who never overlooks the cries of His people. When we wait upon the Lord, He acts on our behalf. He brings justice into our lives, within our families, our communities, and every circumstance that concerns us. Therefore, do not be afraid. God will vindicate you, cause you to rejoice, and bring honour to your life in His perfect time. When He does justice for you, the people around you will see how righteous, innocent, and deserving of God's reward you are. Let us see who those people are whom God upholds with His justice.

JUSTICE FOR GOD'S SAINTS

Firstly, He does justice for His saints. Psalm

37:28 says, "For the Lord loves justice and does not forsake His saints; they are preserved forever." Those who walk in His will are never abandoned. You are a saint of God, set apart, loved by Him, and carrying His presence in your life. Because you belong to Him, His justice surrounds you.

Justice for His saints is shown clearly seen as His preservation of their lives which is beautifully illustrated in Jeremiah 17:7-8: "Blessed is the one who trusts in the Lord... They will be like a tree planted by the water that sends out its roots by the stream.” Such a person does not fear when heat comes; their leaves remain green, and they continue to bear fruit even in drought. Likewise, God establishes His saints firmly. Even in seasons of scarcity, uncertainty, global crisis or false accusations, He ensures that His people are not in lack or remain bound by unjust circumstances. His justice protects them from fear and sustains them throughout their life.

Here's a testimony that proves this true: For many years, I have had the privilege of serving as a prayer intercessor at Jesus Calls. As I stand in the gap for countless people and pray for others, I have personally witnessed the mighty hand of God in my own family as much as others'. One of the darkest seasons of my life came when my beloved son fell gravely ill. For six long months, he was completely bedridden, unable to stand or walk on his own. Medical reports offered no hope, and despair settled heavily over our home. Yet, as an intercessor, I chose to cling to the Word of God. Day and night, I poured out my heart the enemy intended for division, God turned into a testimony of love and unity. Today, we live as a blessed family laughing together, praying together, and serving the Lord side by side. - Joseph, Sri Lanka

Are you too a saint who listens to God and seeks to do His will in all things? If so, He promises to preserve you in times of trouble and prosper you even amid the greatest challenges. Today, the justice of God is coming to you in the name of Jesus.

We see that in the life of Jesus; the Lord of all creation was subjected to unjust accusations, even to the point of crucifixion. No one truly defended the Lord. He washed the feet of His own betrayer, He shared the bread and wine with him and yet it did not stop the eternal purpose from being unfolded. Pilate had the power to release Jesus, but he washed his hands and let people have their will. This is how the world's system of justice operates sometimes specially for the just. Though such injustice of the world seemed to prevail, it was allowed so that eternal justice from God would come to mankind (Isaiah 9:7). Similarly, unjust before the Lord at Jesus Calls, joining fellow intercessors in prayer and fasting. Together, we stood on the promise of Isaiah 53:5, declaring that by His wounds, my son was healed. Then, one ordinary day, God did the extraordinary. Strength suddenly returned to my son's legs. He stood up, began to walk, and soon resumed his work. Today, my son stands strong and healthy, a living testimony for God's glory. God's work of restoration did not end there. For fifteen painful years, a deep rift had separated me from my daughter-in-law. Silence, misunderstanding, and bitterness had built walls that seemed impossible to break, robbing our family of peace and joy. But in His perfect timing, God softened her heart. One evening, she came to me in tears, seeking forgiveness and reconciliation. What situations in your life will only prevail for a season. When God brings justice, it will remain forever and it will be His work. He will not just release the innocent from suffering but reward them at the right time.

JUSTICE FOR THE RIGHTEOUS

Secondly, God does justice by bringing forth the righteousness of His servants before others. Isaiah 58:8 promises, “Then your light shall break forth like the dawn, and your righteousness shall go before you.” God Himself honours those who faithfully walk in His will.

The life of Jonah reveals another dimension of God's justice: His compassion. Jonah initially disobeyed God, fearing that if Nineveh repented, God would spare the city and his message of destruction would seem futile. He fled, but God pursued him. A storm arose, Jonah was thrown into the sea, and yet God, in His justice and mercy, prepared a great fish to save him. Even in Jonah's disobedience, God upheld His purpose. Jonah repented, was brought to Nineveh, and proclaimed God's message. When the people turned from their sins, God forgave them. Jonah was angered by this outcome, but God reminded him that He is a God of compassion. God's justice was withheld from Jonah when he repented as well as from the people of Nineveh when they repented of their sins. Both Jonah and the people of Nineveh are examples for God's compassion prevailing as justice when people turn from their wrong ways and pursue righteousness. Our God is the same even today. He will pour forth His grace when we seek reconciliation with Him.

This truth was experienced profoundly in our own lives. In July 1985, our family faced immense tribulation. The Lord had instructed my father to build a university, promising to establish it Himself. Soon after announcing this vision, my father suffered kidney failure.

noonday sun" (Psalm 37:6).

Dear friend, trust in the Lord. Obey Him wholeheartedly, even when the path is painful or unclear. The God of justice will surely uphold you, honour you, and accomplish His will through your life.

The Lord declares, "I will stand with them, do justice, and fulfill My will." His justice never fails. When God stands with you, no one can stand against you. Nothing can overcome you. "No weapon formed against you shall prosper," (Isaiah 54:17) and the Lord will cause your righteousness to shine before others like the light of day, bringing honour to His name through your life. Therefore, do not be afraid. Rise up and do the will of God. Fulfil His righteousness with courage and obedience. The Lord once spoke to our family and said, "The more people ridicule you with lies or curse you out of jealousy, the more I will bless you." That is why we choose not to respond to accusations or ignorance. We simply continue doing the will of God. Through this obedience, God has touched millions of lives through Jesus Calls, Karunya, and SEESHA.

What He has done for us, He will do for you.

Shortly thereafter, our family endured the devastating loss of my sister in a tragic accident. Questions, criticism, and heartbreak surrounded us. Yet on 29 July 1986, we came before God as a family and prayed, "Not our will, Lord, but Yours be done." Though broken and grieving, we chose obedience. Strengthened by the Holy Spirit, our hearts were healed, and we rose up to fulfill God's calling. By His power, Karunya University was established. Today, it stands on 700 acres, shining as a testimony nationally and globally.

God brought forth our righteousness like the noonday sun. He vindicated us and fulfilled His will. "He will make your righteous reward shine like the dawn, your vindication like the

When you obey God at all costs, His justice will go before you, protect you, and lift you up. Great and mighty things will surely come to pass.

JUSTICE FOR THOSE WHO CRY OUT TO GOD

Thirdly, God does justice for those who continually call upon the name of Jesus. Jesus Himself assures us in Luke 18:7-8: "Will not God bring about justice for His elect, who cry out to Him day and night? I tell you, He will see that they get justice-and quickly." God's answers are not delayed forever. Justice will come speedily. The more opposition you face, the more God will honour you and raise you to greater heights.

God does justice by granting prophetic insight to those who worship, fast, and wait at His feet. In Luke 2:37–38, we read about Anna, an 84-year-old widow who never left the temple but worshipped God night and day with fasting and prayer. Her life was continual worship, a heart fully surrendered to God. Because of this, God opened her understanding, and she prophesied about Jesus, recognising Him as the Redeemer of the world when He was presented at the temple.

Paul was called by God to reach the gentiles. To begin his ministry, he went to Arabia to be taught by the Lord Himself rather seeking the disciples of Jesus to learn about Him. (Galatians 1:17). He fasted and prayed and as a result, Paul had revelations that are still a mystery to understand fully and are a shining light that teaches us godly living, leading all men both gentiles and Jews to Christ.

A wonderful testimony that prayer brings justice is seen in the story of Bharathi Nagar from Tenkasi: My youngest son-in-law, Paul Raj, worked in the Tenkasi Government IT office for ten years as a temporary employee. Suddenly, he lost his job when a new person in trouble, God will raise you as His prophetic voice, giving you clarity, direction, and authority through His Spirit.

May this grace rest upon you today to worship the Lord continually, even in fasting and prayer, and to walk in divine revelation as God establishes His justice in your life.

JUSTICE FOR THE JUST

Finally, God does justice when we live justly. Proverbs 21:3 declares, “To do righteousness and justice is more acceptable to the Lord than sacrifice.” God values righteous living more than religious rituals. Worship without integrity does not move God. When our deeds, words, and conduct are unjust, we invite injustice into our own lives.

Scripture warns us clearly. Isaiah 1:17 urges, “Learn to do good; seek justice, correct oppression; bring justice to the fatherless, plead the widow’s cause.” When we withhold wages, exploit the poor, practice dishonesty, or profit through injustice, the cries of the oppressed reach God’s ears (James 5:4). Such prayers hinder our own blessings, no matter how religious our outward acts may appear (Isaiah 1:15). If we do not live righteously, was appointed. For the next three years, we pursued the matter through a court case. We are part of Jesus Calls, and during this difficult season, we prayed fervently with fasting, believing that God would bring a change. By the great grace of the Lord and prayer support from the Jesus Calls Ministry, he has now received that job and the compensation he deserved. We thank God for hearing our prayers and answering them.

This same grace is available to you. When worship becomes your lifestyle, whether you are working, travelling, or facing adversity, God opens your heart to discern His will. As Romans 8:28 assures us, all things work together for good for those who love God. Even injustice will inevitably be meted out to us. God will not listen when hands are stained with injustice.

But when we live justly honouring others, giving what is due, caring for the vulnerable, God’s justice comes powerfully upon us. His protection flows from generation to generation. Honour fills your life, provision follows your obedience, and God Himself lifts you up.

We see God’s blessing in the life of Dorcas. She was full of good works and acts of charity (Acts 9:36-42). She was known for her kindness and, in particular, for sewing tunics and garments for the widows and the poor in her community. She fell ill and died, after which her body was placed in an upper room. Knowing that the Apostle Peter was in the nearby city of Lydda, the believers sent for him, urging him to come without delay. Upon arrival, the widows showed Peter the clothing Dorcas had made. Peter sent everyone out, knelt, and prayed. He then said, "Tabitha, arise," and she opened her eyes and sat up. This miracle became known throughout Joppa, leading many to believe in the Lord.

Yes, the calling God has given is to let our lives shine visibly through good deeds: "Let your light shine before others, that they may see your good works and glorify your Father in heaven." Righteous living is not hidden; it reflects God's nature and brings honour to His name.

After my father passed away, God spoke to me from Isaiah 1:17 and said that I must care for the poor. He said I should provide clothes for those without clothes, feed those without food, and provide shelter for those without a home. He promised that then He will cause our light to rise like the dawn, our health to be restored quickly, and our righteousness to go before us (Isaiah 58:8). God fulfilled this promise. As we began serving the poor through SEESHA, God mercifully preserved and upheld the ministry. Despite many struggles, His righteousness continues to be revealed.

Today, we often see people bargaining harshly with the poor, denying what is rightfully due, and criticising those who have sacrificed faithfully to bless others. Such actions invite injustice upon themselves. But the opposite is also true: when we act justly, when we care for others, honour their dignity, and give what is due, God's justice flows powerfully into our lives.

Scripture reminds us in 1 John 4:20: "Whoever claims to love God yet hates a brother or sister is a liar." Love for God is proven through love for people.

Once, when a person became the Prime Minister of a nation, he invited me to speak with him. He asked for guidance as he stepped into leadership. I told him plainly: "You are not placed here merely to enjoy power. God has made you a father to the entire nation." Leadership, I explained, cannot favour one group over another, whether by religion, caste, language, or background.

Yes, a leader must love all people equally. If even one group is neglected, the very foundation of leadership begins to crumble.

The same truth applies to every one of us. In our families, workplaces, churches, and society, we are called to love and care for everyone without partiality. When we love people genuinely, we are loving God Himself and when He sees such love, He establishes our lives, strengthens our position, and causes everything we do to prosper.

God's message to us today is simple yet profound: live righteously, love fully, and walk justly. When you do, God will do justice for you. Your prayers will be answered. Your work will prosper. You will become a blessing to many, and God's favour will rest upon your life. May God's justice follow you, establish you, and cause you to shine both today and always. God bless you.

PRAYER: Loving Lord Jesus, You are the God of justice. You humbled Yourself, shed Your righteous blood, and became the perfect sacrifice for my redemption. Grant me the grace to live righteously. As You rose in victory through God's justice, give me the strength to rise above every situation I face. Establish me firmly. Let no weapon formed against me prosper. Let Your justice work through me and for me making me a true reflection of Yourself in this world. I give You all the glory. In Your mighty name I pray, Amen.

OVERFLOWINGLY BLESSED

I got married in 2019, and soon after, my husband and I longed to start a family. However, despite several attempts, I was unable to conceive. After medical consultation, the doctors diagnosed me with PCOD and suggested IVF treatment as the only option. This was emotionally challenging for us, especially because my husband serves in the Army and we are able to meet only once in 7 to 8 months. During this difficult phase, I came to the Prayer Tower in Ranchi and enrolled in the Family Blessing Plan, surrendering my burden to the Lord. God, in His great mercy, heard our prayers and blessed us with a beautiful baby girl on 20th April. Today, my heart overflows with gratitude for His faithfulness and perfect timing. - Poonam Tirkey, Ranchi

Just like Poonam Tirkey, when families are covered in prayer, God turns waiting seasons into seasons of celebration.

FAMILY BLESSING PLAN

In the Bible, Hannah wept before the Lord in deep anguish as she longed for a child. Year after year, her heart carried silent pain and unanswered prayers. Yet, when she surrendered her family for the service of God, the Lord remembered her and turned her sorrow into joy by blessing her with Samuel. In the same way, God still remembers every tear shed by families who trust Him and look to Him in prayer enrolling themselves in God's mission. God's favor rests upon such families even today.

Is Your Family Waiting for a Divine Miracle?

Dear friend,
In a world that measures success by wealth,
status, and outward achievement,
Scripture offers a radically different vision of true prosperity.
The Bible declares,

“THE TENT OF THE UPRIGHT WILL FLOURISH” (Proverbs 14:11).

Flourishing, in God’s economy, is not accidental; it is the fruit of righteousness. When a family chooses to walk uprightly before the Lord, His blessing rests not only on individuals, but across generations.

Psalm 92 paints a powerful picture of this truth: “The righteous will flourish like a palm tree; they will grow like a cedar of Lebanon.”

Palm trees thrive in harsh climates, bearing fruit even in dry seasons, while cedars grow tall, strong, and enduring. Together, they illustrate stability, fruitfulness, and longevity which are the hallmarks of a righteous life. During visits to Israel, one can see these trees standing tall and fruitful, a living reminder that God’s Word is not poetic imagination but lived reality. In the same way, families rooted in righteousness continue to rise, expand, and bless others.

The story of Rahab in Joshua 2 and 6 is a striking example of how righteousness expressed through faith and obedience can transform an entire family line. Rahab lived in Jericho and was known for a sinful past. Yet, when she heard of the God of Israel, faith rose in her heart. She chose to protect the Israelite spies, aligning herself with the purposes of God at great personal risk.

Rahab’s righteousness was not defined by her past, but by her response to God. Because of her faith, she and her entire household were spared when Jericho fell. Scripture is careful to note that Rahab did not survive alone but her family was saved with her. Even more remarkably, Rahab went on to become part of the lineage of Jesus Christ (Matthew 1:5). What began as one courageous act of righteousness resulted in generational blessing and eternal significance.

A RIGHTEOUS
Family

Rahab's story assures us that when one person in a family chooses to fear the Lord, that decision can alter the destiny of many. God's mercy and blessing extend beyond the individual to the household that shelters under obedience and faith.

The book of Exodus offers another profound principle. The Hebrew midwives feared God and refused to obey Pharaoh's cruel command. Scripture records, "So God was kind to the midwives... and because the midwives feared God, He gave them families of their own" (Exodus 1:20–21). Their reverence for God brought divine favor not only protection, but personal blessing and family increase.

This reveals a timeless truth: when God delights in a person, that delight overflows into their family life. Righteousness attracts God's attention, and His reward is never small.

This principle is not confined to biblical history; it continues to unfold in our times.

William Booth, the founder of The Salvation Army, stands as a compelling example of how a righteous life brings blessing to an entire family. Deeply committed to holiness, compassion, and obedience to God, Booth and his wife Catherine built their home on prayer and service to the poor and marginalized. Their children were not merely raised in ministry but were shaped by integrity, discipline, and a passion for souls. Remarkably, all eight of their children became active leaders and ministers within The Salvation Army, carrying forward their parents' vision with strength and faith. Though the Booth family faced opposition, poverty, and sacrifice, God caused their legacy to flourish globally, proving that when a family lives uprightly before the Lord, their influence can bless generations.

Today, they continue to serve God faithfully in ministry, leadership, and teaching, impacting millions worldwide. While no family is without challenges, raising children who love God reflects the heart of biblical flourishing that not fame, but faith must be passed on.

God's promise is clear: "The Lord will bless you and your household... and He will increase you more and more, you and your children" (Psalm 115:14). Righteous families may face trials, but they are never abandoned. Like palm trees, they stand firm; like cedars, they grow strong over time.

When a family chooses righteousness which are daily obedience, reverence for God, and trust in His Word, their home becomes fertile ground for God's blessing. Such families flourish spiritually, relationally, and generationally.

May the Lord delight in you and your household. May your home flourish with faith, peace, and purpose. May generations after you rise up and testify that choosing righteousness truly leads to a flourishing life.

UK Prayer Tower

FROM HOPELESSNESS TO NEW BEGINNINGS

A few months ago, I walked through one of the most difficult seasons of my life. I had lost my job and was carrying a heavy financial burden. Each month, the pressure of pending loan payments weighed heavily on me. It reached a point where I could not even afford to make outgoing calls from my phone. I felt helpless and overwhelmed, with hope slowly fading.

In that desperate moment, I sent a simple text message to the prayer intercessor at the Jesus Calls Prayer Tower, asking for prayer support. I did not have many words to express my pain, but I held on to one firm belief—that God would hear my cry through their prayers.

By the grace and mercy of God, my situation began to change. Soon after that prayer request, I received a wonderful job offer. Step by step, the Lord restored what I had lost. Today, I am able to meet my financial needs and repay my debts one by one. I clearly see God's faithfulness in every step of this journey. He lifted me out of distress and gave me a fresh start.

I sincerely thank and bless everyone at the Jesus Calls Ministry for standing in prayer and interceding for people like me. This experience has strengthened my faith deeply. Truly, God answers prayers, and His grace never fails!

From THE DEPTHS OF
My heart
I SPEAK...

My Dear Partner in the Ministry,

Every time we pause to reflect on God's faithfulness, our hearts overflow with thanksgiving for you. Your partnership is not just a contribution, it is our divine provision from the Lord. You have stood with us through prayer, sacrifice, and unwavering faith, and the Lord sees every seed you have sown for His Kingdom.

"They will build houses and dwell in them; they will plant vineyards and eat their fruit." (Isaiah 65:21)

This is God's promise for this month for you and your family. You will see stability, fruitfulness, and fulfillment. The Lord is assuring that your labour will not be in vain. What you build in faith will stand. What you sow in obedience will yield a harvest. You will witness reward for your endeavors in all aspects. You yourself will benefit from your efforts and not someone else.

As you walk alongside us in our ministry, may you experience this promise personally in your home, your work, and your calling. The Lord has entrusted us with a great responsibility to reach lives that are weary, lost, and searching for hope. With His grace and your partnership, we continue pressing forward to proclaim His love to the unreached.

PRAISE POINTS

◆ I am so grateful to God for enabling the ministry touch the lives of 2 crore people last month through various ways. Here is the impact your generous sowing made in our ministry last month: At the Prayer Towers, over 1,37,450 visitors experienced the power of intercession, while 3,72,100 callers received comfort and miracles through the Telephone Prayer Towers and 13,030 callers through the Dial-A-Prayer service. Through social media, 2,271,750 visitors were reached, and the E-magazines ministered to 1.5 lakh readers. More than 25,500 letters and 33,850 emails were prayerfully answered with words of God's love and promise. 3,560 events conducted in Prayer Tower and also 1,08,450 blessed people, and the Lord also moved powerfully through 79 outreach meetings, blessing 1,120 people, and during weekly fasting prayers, 12,650 individuals were provided with food. The recently launched program Children Are a Blessing, under The Family series, has reached more than 1.5 million views, and we have received countless testimonies of how it has blessed people. Truly, God's name is glorified through your support and prayers as the souls touched keeps increasing.

◆ The Day of Hope was commemorated as a sacred remembrance of the moment on February 11, 1955, when my father, Dr. D.G.S. Dhinakaran, received divine hope from the Lord Jesus Christ at the darkest point of his life. As we marked 70th anniversary of this enduring hope, special prayer meetings were held across Prayer Towers and social media platforms from February 11 to 20, where countless lives were touched and strengthened. Measures to bring hope were taken by reaching schools, hospitals, HIV centres and among communities facing depression, stress and suicidal thoughts. I believe many lives would have been transformed through the initiatives taken.

◆ Students Prayer Meet: In recent weeks, we have witnessed the unmistakable hand of God moving powerfully among His people. During our Students Prayer Meet held on the 1st of February, 2026 at Wings Convention Centre, St. George's School ground in Chennai, around 4000 young lives were touched deeply by the presence of the Lord. Fear gave way to faith, confusion to clarity, and weakness to strength. Many students testified of renewed confidence, peace of mind, and divine help as they prepared for their examinations.

An inspiring testimony was shared by Evangeline, an 11th standard student who once struggled with overwhelming fear about her 10th public examinations. She attended the Partners Meeting at Adyar on January 15, 2025. As I had prayed for her, God miraculously replaced her anxiety with divine peace. The same young girl who trembled in fear went on to score 497/500, securing School First, District First, and State 3rd Rank with centums, along with a prestigious Government Merit Scholarship which is a powerful testimony of how God turns fear into extraordinary victory.

Every year, we are continuing to uphold the students who request prayers through Chain Prayer, lifting up their exam timetables before the Lord until every paper is completed. We firmly believe that God, who orders their steps, will also crown their efforts with success. Your children will also rise up in life. Contact the Telephone Prayer Tower at or visit your nearest Prayer Tower to receive prayers and send us your testimonies when you witness an answer to the prayers offered.

*Dear Partner,
take heart and be encouraged.
The Lord is leading us into a season of greater responsibility and greater anointing.*

◆ The Bethesda Blessing Meeting held on February 8th evening was a powerful divine gathering where 5000 people from across India experienced the tangible presence of God. Testimonies shared ignited faith in the gathering. Parameshwari from Coimbatore testified how God had called her name in one such meeting and prophesied through me that she will be blessed with a own house and God fulfilled the prophecy. With faith, I ministered from Micah 2:13, declaring that the Lord goes before His people, breaking bondages, healing the sick, and restoring lives through the victory of the cross. As we prayed together, God's power truly flowed mightily, bringing healing, deliverance, renewal, and overwhelming joy to every heart.

In the morning Sunday Service held on the same day, my son Samuel Dhinakaran ministered to around 1000 people from John 4:24, reminding the gathering that God calls us to be true worshippers who walk in the fear of the Lord and live by the truth of His Word.

◆ On February 7, 2026, Trinity Prayer House, Coimbatore celebrated its 50th Anniversary.

It was a great joy to minister there, sharing God's promise from Isaiah 40:31, declaring renewed strength, divine justice for their labour, and righteousness shining forth like a well-watered garden. My beloved wife, Sis. Evangeline Paul Dhinakaran, prayed earnestly, proclaiming multiplication, divine preservation, and greater usefulness in God's hands.

God's name was glorified through all the meetings and ministry efforts of last month.

PRAYER REQUESTS

ESTHER PRAYER GROUP

The Esther Prayer Group (EPG) of the Jesus Calls ministry is a powerful global intercessory movement calling women, young girls, girl children and couples to arise and shine through prayer. What began with just one group has now grown into a vast network of about 2,250 groups across almost all states of India and around 90 groups spread across 18 countries worldwide, making it a truly international prayer mission. The ministry functions through well-defined categories to engage women of all ages and stages of life: Esther Prayer Groups (EPG) for women, Youth Esther Prayer Groups (YEPG) for young girls aged 14–25, Junior Esther Prayer Groups (JEPG) for children aged 8–13, and Couple Esther Prayer Groups (CEPG) for married couples. Each category operates in multiple groups, meeting monthly to pray with commitment and unity using prayer points given by my mother, Sis. Stella Dhinakaran. Through this Spirit-led network, countless members testify of transformed lives, answered prayers, spiritual growth, and breakthroughs in families, education, careers, and ministries revealing the immense importance and impact of the Esther Prayer Group in building praying women and godly families across nations.

Kalpana Jabez and Jabez, CEPG Coordinators, Dallas, USA testified how one couple conceived and welcomed a beautiful child after two months of faithful participation in the prayer group, while others who once hesitated now testify of God's presence and family breakthroughs.

I will not be able to mention all the testimonies people across the world are receiving in answer to their group prayers. I invite you to join in the category convenient for you and experience for yourself a prayer fellowship that will transform your life as well as those that join you. To enroll or start your prayer group, email to epg@jesuscalls.org

TRUMPET PRAYER GROUP

The call to unite all prayerful hearts in response to God's word from Ezekiel 22:30 to my wife, Sis. Evangeline Paul Dhinakaran, led to the formation of the Trumpet Prayer Group, a network that prays for the nation and the world, preparing hearts for the Lord's coming. An average of 50 prayer intercessors join every afternoon from 1:00 p.m. to 1:30 p.m. to pray over the prayer points my wife shares as led by God. Chain prayers are also offered by volunteer prayer intercessors for submitted prayer requests. I welcome you to register as a "Trumpet Prayer Intercessor" by contacting +91 6380752257 or emailing trumpet@jesuscalls.org

A HOUSE OWNED THROUGH THE SEED SOWN

My family and I have been partners of the Jesus Calls Ministry for many years. Every time we sought God in prayer through Jesus Calls, He answered us faithfully. We had been praying and planning to purchase our own house. In the month of May, we visited the Secunderabad Prayer Tower and shared our request with the prayer intercessors. They prayed earnestly for us and guided us to sow a seed toward the Prayer Tower building fund. By faith, we obeyed. Within just 15 days, God miraculously led us and blessed us with our own house. We give all glory to God for answering our prayers and blessing us with a home. We sincerely thank Bro. Paul Dhinakaran, his family, and the prayer intercessors who stood with us in prayer. All glory to God alone.

My dear friend, stepping into a new season always brings questions about direction. As we journey through this year, I am sure we will look back at the past months and recognize a distinct grace God has added to our lives through the strength we did not have before, clarity that slowly emerged, and hope that carried us through uncertainty. As we enter the month of March, God gives us a precious promise from Psalm 16:11: “You make known to me the path of life.” This assurance is not merely comforting; it is transformational. It reminds us that our lives are not left to chance. When we surrender ourselves to God, He takes full control and lovingly reveals the path we are meant to walk.

The psalmist declares this truth with joy. He rejoices because God does not hide His will from those who seek Him. In another psalm we read, “Your word is a lamp to my feet and a light to my path.” God’s guidance is not vague or distant. His Word illuminates each step, often just enough light for today, but always sufficient to move forward with confidence.

Yet, many young people walk through life feeling lost, unsure of the next step. Surrounded by pressure, competition, and conflicting voices, they move forward with fear rather than assurance. Questions about success, purpose, and the future weigh heavily on their hearts. But Scripture tells us that when God reveals our path, He also fills us with joy. The certainty that our lives are guided by Him replaces fear with peace.

One timeless secret to knowing God’s direction is learning to wait at His feet. From a young age, I witnessed this principle lived out through family prayer. Time and again, the Lord impressed a simple truth on my heart through my grandfather and father: “Wait at My feet.” Waiting before God is not passive; it is an active posture of trust. As we spend time daily in His presence reading Scripture, praying, and listening, He strengthens us inwardly. Gradually, our hearts become attuned to His voice. What once felt confusing begins to feel clear, and His guidance becomes familiar.

WAITING BEFORE
GOD IS NOT PASSIVE;
IT IS AN ACTIVE POSTURE OF TRUST

He sharpens our discernment so we can receive the right words from the right people. In His time, He even brings the right life partner, friendships, and support systems that align with His plan.

I have personally experienced this kind of divine leading. While choosing a college, several options were before me. In that season, a group of young people in a ministry were praying, and God prophetically revealed to them that I would join their college. Through that unexpected confirmation, I received clarity and peace. I followed that direction, and in hindsight, I can clearly see how God blessed my studies and shaped my life through that decision. Had I followed the wrong counsel, the outcome could have been very different. God, in His mercy, protected my path.

God reveals our path in very practical ways. One significant area is our career and life decisions. Many voices speak into this space through our own dreams, our parents’ expectations, advice from mentors, pastors, and friends. While counsel is valuable, it can also feel overwhelming. The assurance we have is this: God remains in control. He may guide us through our parents, confirm direction through trusted leaders, or speak directly to our hearts but when we wait on Him, no conflicting voice can derail His purpose. He ensures that we move forward in His chosen way.

This same God desires to guide you. He delights in leading His children. When you surrender your life into His hands, He faithfully reveals each step opening doors that seem impossible, granting favor in interviews and admissions, and establishing you firmly in His plan.

Another way God makes our path known is by bringing the right people into our lives at the right time. Relationships play a powerful role in shaping our journey. God adds people who carry His counsel, encouragement, and wisdom. At the same time, He protects our hearts from unhealthy influences and misleading advice. As we learn to wait on Him,

What a blessing it is to be led by God. As you trust Him, you will see Him actively working in your life by ordering your steps, surrounding you with the right people, and filling your heart with peace and joy. May this month be one where you experience His guidance more clearly than ever before. Walk forward with confidence, for the Lord Himself makes known the path of your life.

Dear friend,

In a world shaped by logic, science, and human limitations, believing beyond what we can see or explain can feel difficult. Yet, I want you to put your faith on the facts from the Bible that our God can do the impossible. I want you to consider the birth story of Jesus that calls us to embrace faith in the impossible. When we reflect on Christ's birth, many images come to mind like the manger, angels, shepherds, and stars. But for me, one truth always stands out: the miracle of a virgin conceiving a child.

As a doctor, I often think deeply about this reality. From a medical standpoint, it is completely impossible. It defies every known law of human biology. Yet, God chose this very impossibility to bring His perfect will to pass. Through a virgin named Mary, Jesus Christ, the Savior of the world, entered human history. What humanity could never accomplish on its own, God fulfilled through His divine power.

The words of Jesus in Luke 18:27 echo powerfully here: Christ's miraculous first coming as a baby from a virgin is a declaration that God specializes in doing what humans deem impossible.

Many of us today are facing situations that feel just as impossible. You may be battling an illness that has lasted for years, with reports that seem final and discouraging. You may be praying for a job, yet every door appears closed, and the position feels far beyond your reach. You may be carrying a burden in your family, your marriage, or your heart that feels too heavy to lift. The whisper in your mind says, "This will never change."

*I have a feeling that I cannot achieve the score I desire.
How can I believe God for the impossible?
— Asks Esther Miriam*

DR. SHILPA DHINAKARAN Answers...

*Faith does not deny reality;
it acknowledges that God is greater than reality*

But the same God who worked the miracle in Mary's life is still at work today. This month I want to remind you that God allows impossibilities not to disrupt your life but to transform it.

Siromani was suffering from uterine cancer and was admitted to the ICU in the final stage. The doctors had completely given up hope and felt that nothing more could be done. In November last year, I prayed for Sis. Siromani and boldly declared that God would heal her. After that prayer, she went through a season of frequent illness, and the doctors advised a PET scan to determine whether the cancer had spread further. At that point, there seemed to be absolutely no hope. However, when the PET scan report came, it was completely normal. No trace of cancer was found. The doctors were astonished and asked her daughter what could be the reason for such an unexpected result. Her daughter simply replied, "We prayed to God." Everyone was amazed to see the normal report. Today, Sis. Siromani is at home in good health entirely by the grace of God.

What was considered the end, God resurrected. What was broken, God restored. This is the God we serve. He is the God of the impossible.

If you are facing sickness, family struggles, emotional pain, or overwhelming uncertainty, bring it before God. Do not measure your future by human limitations. Do not let past reports define what God can do.

Mary did not understand how she would conceive, but she surrendered in faith. The couple in the testimony did not see a way forward, but they trusted God anyway. Faith does not deny reality; it acknowledges that God is greater than reality.

In all stages of life, hold on to hope. Hold on to faith. Believe that God is still working behind the scenes, even when you cannot see immediate change. The same God who brought Jesus into the world through a miracle is still present with you today. You do not serve a limited God. You serve the God of the impossible. Remember that with God, all things are possible. Achieve the impossible with God beside you. God bless you.

CHRIST

Given

Radiant Life

“You search the Scriptures, for in them you have eternal life; and these are they which testify of Me.”
(John 5:39)

As we thus read in John 5:39, when we read and meditate on the Scriptures reverentially, they would wonderfully lead us towards the divine path of receiving ‘eternal life’. Yes, dear ones! Every day, we need to read the Scriptures, which are the Lord’s words, diligently and reverentially. Then, the Lord would speak to us through His word. He will grant us blessed, divine experiences. What should we do to receive this blessed life?

LET US ARISE AND SHINE FOR CHRIST

The Bible says that ‘having no fellowship with the unfruitful works of darkness, we should arise and shine for Christ’ (Ephesians 5:11,14). Let us not have any fellowship with the unfruitful works of darkness, but rebuke them. Then Christ will make our life radiant. Look at the lives of Adam and Eve! God had kept them in a blessed and blissful state. However, He had commanded them not to touch just a single fruit. They, on the other hand, lusted after that forbidden fruit and ate it audaciously. The reason, the devil induced lust in them and made them dwell in darkness (Psalm 143:3).

(Ephesians 4:22)

“And that you put on the new man which was created according to God...” (Ephesians 4:24). In John 4th chapter, we read about a Samaritan woman, who happens to meet the Lord Jesus. When she met Him, she was living in the darkness of sin. However, the moment she heard the words of Jesus, she became a ‘believer’ who testified about Him to others. We read in the Bible that “And many of the Samaritans of that city believed in Him because of the word of the woman” (John 4:39). Accordingly, in Acts 9th chapter, when Jesus, ‘the Light’ encountered Saul, a son of perdition, he became a ‘vessel of mercy’ (Romans 9:23). Don’t we read in the Bible that having been delivered from a life of darkness, he lived as a ‘fruit yielding tree’ to lead many in the divine path? Also when he thus fulfilled His divine services, He passed through several sufferings and afflictions.

Dear ones, are you today enslaved by devilry and living in the dark? Or have you been washed by the blood of Jesus and are living as children of light and leading a fruitful life? Examine your life!

A married couple was living without any God given peace. However, the wife sought after the Lord in reverence and became a ‘fruit yielding vessel’ for Him. On the other hand, the husband was caught up in the ways of the devil and was walking in a path of utter darkness. The Lord heard the cries of that wife’s unceasing and reverential prayers and broke the husband’s hard heart. He led him in such a way that he repented and sought the Lord, along with his wife, and walked in divine paths. All the darkness in their family departed! Both of them together walked in godly and holy ways and lived for the glory of God!

Dearly beloved, examine your personal life, for a while! Is it filled with divinity, peace and joy? Or is it full of darkness of sin and enslaved to the devil? As we read in Colossians 1:13, may God deliver

Not stopping with accepting the Christ Jesus commit yourself also to get rooted in the Lord

everyone from the power of darkness and convey you all into the kingdom of His son!

LIFE, ROOTED IN CHRIST

As read in Colossians 2:6,7, may you receive a life of being rooted in Christ and built up in Him! How to receive this life of getting rooted in Him?

We need to receive the divine experiences mentioned in Ephesians 3:16,17, and 19, in our lives. The life of our Lord Jesus Christ is a fine example for this!

“How God anointed Jesus of Nazareth with the Holy Spirit and with power, who went about doing good and healing all who were oppressed by the devil, for God was with Him.”

(Acts 10:38)

Though He came as the Son of God, He had the divine life of being filled with the Holy Spirit and His power, as read in the above verse. In Acts 1:5,8, we see Him as the resurrected Lord, having conquered death and teaching His disciples about receiving the divine life of being filled with divine power by waiting at the feet of God. Accordingly, when they thus continued with one accord in prayer (Acts 1:14), God poured upon them His Holy Spirit. We read about these divine experiences in Acts 2nd chapter. Thus, the disciples, received a life of being rooted in Him through the filling of the Holy Spirit. After that, they also had the divine life of yielding fruits for God, being filled with the gifts of the Holy Spirit and His fruits. Judas, the son of perdition, alone lost it.

By the grace of God, our family too is

The Lord fills us with His Spirit, grants us the divine life of yielding fruits for Him and thus makes us shine for Him

filled with the Holy Spirit and is living a life of being rooted in Christ. The Jesus Calls ministry was entrusted by Him to Bro. Dhinakaran. As a family, we received this life of being rooted in Him, as a result of which multitude of people also received the same life; several ministers rose up because of this; many families too were spiritually elevated and have been built up in the Lord.

YOU SHALL ABOUND IN FAITH

"...established in the faith, as you have been taught, abounding in it with thanksgiving." (Colossians 2:7)

The Bible says "Continue earnestly in prayer, being vigilant in it with thanksgiving" (Colossians 4:2). Look at David, the man of God! He says, "I will bless the Lord at all times; His praise shall continually be in my mouth" (Psalm 34:1).

When many, thus join together and praise the Lord with fiery anointing, the grace of God shall abound (II Corinthians 4:15). Also we read in the Bible that the Lord dwells in the midst of praises and "You are holy, enthroned in the praises of Israel" (Psalm 22:3).

Look at the glorious life of Daniel, the man of God! He faced a terrible problem in his life. But, as read in Daniel 6:3 since he sought God with a faithful heart and in reverence, an excellent spirit was in him. The King wanted to make him a ruler over all his kingdom. For this reason, the governors and satraps tried to find a reason to find a charge against him. Hence, they tried to find one in the law of his God and the Scriptures. As read in Daniel 6:7, they made king Darius sign a written document that whoever petitions any god or man other than the king for thirty days, he shall be cast into the den of lions.

Daniel, knelt down on his knees three times that day and prayed and gave thanks before his God (Daniel 6:10). All those wicked men saw this; they informed it to the king and got his permission to cast Daniel into the lions' den, as signed by the king. With no option left, the king had him cast into the lions' den and here God did a miraculous work. In the morning, the king went to the den and cried out with a lamenting voice, "Daniel, servant of the living God, has your God, whom you serve continually, been able to deliver you from the lions?" Daniel said to the king, "O king, my God sent His angel and shut the lions' mouth so that they have not hurt me, because I was found innocent before Him and you." The king was exceedingly glad for him and brought him out of the lions' den. On the other hand, he cast those men who had accused Daniel, into the den of lions. The lions overpowered them and broke all their bones in pieces.

Yes, dear ones, when we live zealously for Christ, He Himself will change us into 'children of light'. Following this, He Himself with His spirit, gives us a fruit yielding life for Him and makes us shine for Him through the fullness of the Holy Spirit. Also, filling us with His divine glory, He gives a transformed life of glory to glory. May the Lord thus help us not to live in darkness but to arise and shine as stars for the glory of His name!
